Violet Ray, a beautiful girl, has many suitors - among them being, Edison Watts. Needless to say she has a very rough father who dislikes every suitor she ever had and quickly gives them notice to leave. But, Edison is more persistent than the others and determines to elope with Violet. They do elope and get aboard a ship where many things happen not scheduled on a regular honeymoon, but eventually persistence wins out and they meet with the reward that true love should always get/.
